“ Our thoughts and prayers are with You all during this time of sorrow. She had to be a wonderful, fun loving women because it has flowed over into her daughter Peggy and her kids. Charity wrote a beautiful post about this woman that said everything a person needed to read to feel like they knew their Granny. Peggy, we love you and your family and are sending hugs and prayers up and over for you all.

“ Emma Jean was one who you would love the first time you met her. Her laugh and personality was so real. She was a cousin to me and a friend to everyone. She and Ken were perfect for each other. She will be missed by everyone she ever met. My prayers and love go out to Ken, Linda, Peggy and families.
