As her older sister by 8 years, I used to ride Joy around in my bicycle basket. She Loved it! I also made dresses for her when she was small!

I am Joy's younger sister. Joy was my constant playmate growing up. I never could beat her at Monopoly but I did whoop her in checkers! We loved to sing together and later we formed a trio with our sister, Sue. I miss her very much; she was full of Faith and a true prayer warrior.
