“ I have known Karen since we where in the 3rd grade at Mark Hopkins and also live about 7 houses from each other in Sacramento Ca. Karen was always on the shy side and kept to herself, she was sweet and kind of course unless you got on her bad side LOL. Don't think I ever made that mistake. We went to school together all the way through high school.

After Hi school we went in different directions, Karen moved to Reno NV and than later found out she moved to Oklahoma. We reconnected on FB about 2 years ago and your friendship continued as if we had never lost contact. I enjoyed our talks, laughing and joking, talking about both good and bad times, she told me about her kids and how she lost her son in Afghanistan and about her Daughter Jennifer who she was so proud of as a daughter, friend and Mother to her Grandchildren. I was very lucky to get to know Jennifer and become very fond of her (even through we don't agree on politics LOL). I was finely after all these year able to tell her I had a crush on her in 11th grade but couldn't get up the nerve to tell her or even ask her out, we both got a big laugh out of it. Told her I always wonder if she would have said yes if I had asked and she said yes, to her dam 40 something years to late and we had a even bigger laugh.

Karen you will continue to have a place in my heart my friend, thank you for your friendship and your respect. I am sure we will meet again in a much better place. As I told you I will be here for Jennifer if she ever need to talk. Love ya my sweet friend

“ Karen was for me one of those truly special friends that you shared your deepest secrets with. We prayed together, laughed together (a LOT of laughing), cried together, talked about everything and nothing, and grew to love each other more like sisters than friends.

It was always so amazing to watch Karen's face light up when she talked about her children (her daughter Jennifer and her son Adam, who passed away) and her grandchildren. We had many talks about her son, and she was so proud of what he had accomplished. And her daughter, Jennifer, for whom she had so much admiration for how she was raising her children, also brought so much joy and laughter to Karen. She would always say that Jennifer had a way of always making her laugh. "What a great mother she is," Karen would say. Of course, Karen had the funniest stories that would make anyone laugh about her precious kitty, Samantha.

It was an honor and a blessing to know such an amazing, beautiful, caring and giving person. Karen, you will be deeply missed. Jennifer, please know that I will continue praying for you and your family as you mourn the loss of your mom. Please call me if you need anything. I want to be there for you like your mom was there for me.

“ Mom I love you. Cant believe your gone but so happy your no longer in pain. I held you tight til the end. You had everyone who loved you near you. Those to far away did face time and called and talked with you. My favorite memory would be singing in the car with you. Anytime we went anywhere. Specially when you turned Spanish speaking radio and mocked them. I'll never forget how hard you made us laugh.
