“ We are truly saddened by Kenny's death. Kenny was more than just a friend; he was an amazing person. We will always remember how he was always smiling and playing his music, we welcomed seeing him at every opportunity. His passing will not only leave a void in our lives, but in the hearts of everyone who knew him. Kenny's memory will always remain deep within our hearts. If there is anything that we can do to help your family in anyway, please do not hesitate to contact us. Our sincere thoughts and prayers are with the family. With deepest sympathy, Aaron and Nikki Goodell

“ We only knew Kenny for the last 6 years, but he was a blessing to our lives as a neighbor and a friend. He showed us so many ways in which he had a genuine and generous heart. With Grant being so close in age to our son, we so enjoyed the moments in which we were able to watch him be a loving dad. We watched him in good times and bad trying to work out his interpersonal relationships. He was devoted and passionate about his feelings for those special to him. When our son was born, Kenny provided us with clothes and furniture from Grant. That was so meaningful to us at that time. When Andrew and Marilyn were trying to get their home finished on the lake, they all welcomed us as part of their family right there in the neighborhood. We knew it was his SUV coming around the corner by the music, and we knew it was his knock on the door. He made even things like cutting down a tree or a fix it job fun and funny to Raymond. We will never forget Kenny. He had a smile that was contagious. He wore his heart on his sleeve (or his skin). He was happy, sad, and very real. Although Courtney does not know us well, we will always feel much love and care for Grant, the most beautiful growing boy. The hearts of our family are broken for Stacy, Courtney and Grant, and all of Marilyn and Andrew's family, brothers and sister. None of us can imagine the steps that it will take to heal, and none of us know what to say when there are so many unanswered questions. May God place in your lives the people that you need that will help you to get through each day. We hope that there is something that we can do in your efforts to heal. He will always remain very alive in our memories. With much love and prayers, The Clarkson's - Raymond, Michelle, Cody and Zach. (Broadway Street)
