“ Grandpa Homer, Nicolas, and I used to go visit Jean and George every Sunday. We'd sit around scratching lottery tickets, and they'd share all kinds of stories and crack hilarious jokes. It was always so much fun going to their home. I will never forget her fun-loving nature. She will be greatly missed.

“ We will miss our dear friend and neighbor Jean. Maddison Cochran and I enjoyed many "Girls Night Out" with Jean. Jean got me started quilting and I took several quilt tops over to have Jean and George look them over. Jean and George lived on our street and we have so many good memories of them. Sally and Roscoe Kishpaugh enjoyed her friendship as well and Jean was so good to look in on Sally after Roscoe died. Jean always said "there's something good in everything bad." I hope she's right. Rest in peace Jeannie. We love you.

“ I came to know Jean when my mom became a resident at Autumn Hills. We had many meals together and a lot of great conversations. She made me smile and I think I made her laugh and smile also. I always looked forward to seeing her. I will miss her dearly.
