“ Oklahoma, as we called her, was one heck of a woman. One problem with living so far away from each other is that we lost time. The time we did have together, however, was always filled with laughter, games, and good times. Her spunk will never be forgotten. Rest easy and I hope you are dancing it up in heaven with Papa Tom.

“ Oklahoma (what her Florida grandkids and great grandkids called her) gravitated to hold and love on the people that needed her the most. She always showed so much love and attention to the sassy spunky kids and grandkids that were more like her sassy and spunky. I remember when she came to my wedding and danced the night away. She danced with a smile on her face and her hands in the air, like she just don't care. She was always crazy, like getting a tattoo, with everyone when she was 80 years young. My mother Darlos is the most beautiful person that God put on earth, so Oklahoma did a wonderful job making Darlos and her siblings role models for her kids, grandkids, great grandkids and beyond. Thank you Oklahoma for my mom and my lovely Aunt Sandy, Uncle Charlie and all the people you brought together. You will be missed but will always have a special place in our hearts.

“ Norma, was so kind and good to me , she was the first person I met who had good things to say about my father (she had great stories about him) that were foreign to me, it sparked good conversations that allowed all of us to know him better. I was in awe of her with all the animals from horses to monkeys and lots in between she seemed to handle it all. It was always fun going to Sandy' house.
Love you all Alta

“ It doesn't seem that long ago when I met Norma (sister-in-law) and became friends. She was always supportive of us even tho we were stupid kids trying to make a life. She loved Cindi and referred to her as "her" baby. She loved to tell me stories and secrets about the family. I always felt welcome in Norma's home and loved being with her and the family. I will miss her and all of the memories we shared. My condolences to all of her family and friends.

“ Norma has been our neighbor for the last 9 years. We have had many wonderful conversations and laughs over those years. Norma was spunky and outspoken, which I loved, she was real, she called it like she saw it. She spoke often of her love Tom and I'm sure their reunion was epic. We will miss Norma and her wonderful laugh.

“ Norma was always Aunt Norma , although we weren't blood, but because Aunt Lois was her sister and all of us kids were so close in age, and were always in the same place, it just seemed as it was! She didn't have any problems making me listen to her! She will be missed!

“ Aunt Norma was my mom's sister and in many ways another mother to me. She always a smile and a word of wisdom that she would share if you asked for it or not. But she always had time to listen and could turn most any situation into a joke. Aunt Norma will be missed by many , but especially by those of us that knew what a big heart she had.
