“ Sorry to hear that Patty has passed away. Patty and I were best friends when we were neighbors growing up in Bartlesville. We spent many days together in our childhood. She was always so sweet. We put on little shows for entertainment. My condolences to the family. June Rosetta Bond Sukovich.

“ Pat was like a second mom to me when we were kids. She seemed to love everyone in her path unconditionally. My favorite memory is, when we were kids (so sorry Sandy), when she was folding laundry, she came across a pair of underwear of Sandy's, and said "Oh look! Sandy let a windy and blew a hole in her underwear! " That was the funniest thing I ever heard, we laughed so hard. She will be missed by all who knew her. Prayers for comfort to you.

“ Cousin Patty had the greatest laugh, it was always fun watching how John would tease her and she would get right back at him. I believe he is doing that to her right now and both are having so much fun in heaven.
