“ Although we did not know Rollie personally we do know his grandson Raymond Tresner. What an honor to be able to pay tribute to a man who undoubtedly made an impact on his life. We can see it through Raymond's devotion to his country, family and friends. Rollie's Legacy is sure to carry on for generations to come. In Rollie's memory and honor we have made a donation to the Infant Crisis Center so that others would be blessed by his legacy.
