“ My sister was such a warrior when it came to fighting her cancer. She loved life and fought until she couldn't anymore. She was loved by many an will be missed dearly. My precious sister is free and at peace now. But I know she will look in on us from time to time. Till we meet again.

“ My mom was born a fighter and fought everyday till the last breath. Her grandchildren were the light of her life, her most beautiful legacy. I'm proud I was able to call you mom. I know my heart breaks that your gone from my sight, but my heart soars knowing your not in pain and that I will one day see you again.
