“ You were a true friend indeed will be missed always. Thank you for the laughs, the cries, and the friendship of a lifetime. I loved the jokes you told me and my children. See you on the other side Buddy.

“ So very sorry for your loss. He was a good man with a good heart. I will always remember how Wilma complained about Albert and his loud TV, when we were on the phone. She would walk outside if she had to, but she would never get mad at him about it. And they were always at the gun shows. She invited me to so many. She loved him an awful lot. And when I went to visit, he would often be outside with his target practice, if he was home. And how much it crushed him to lose her.
