

Alice Faye Barger

October 29, 1939 - November 29, 2018

On November 29, 2018, Heaven received a special angel. Alice Barger stepped into the arms of Jesus.

Alice Fay (Miller) Barger was born October 29, 1939 to Richard E and Mary Edna (Bass) Miller. She and Bob Barger were united in marriage August 20, 1957 in Pawhuska, Oklahoma. They have made their home in the Barnsdall area since then.

Alice was employed with the Munsing Wear Co. in Hominy. She later worked at First Baptist Church and then at Woolaroc until she retired.

She enjoyed collecting antiques and would go bottle and marble hunting any chance she got. She would go search through the old dumps searching for treasures. Christmas was her favorite time of the year. She enjoyed listening to holiday Nat King Cole songs.

She is survived by her husband, Bob Barger, two daughters Kim Barger, of the home and Alicia Strahm and husband Bryan of Pawhuska; Grandchildren Kyle Moore and wife Haylee of Wynona, Rhett Strahm, Leah Dawn Strahm, Cashman Strahm of Pawhuska; one great-grandson Kasen Ray Moore; two brothers, Glen W. Miller and Virgil Lee Miller; two sisters, Mary Jo Grayson and Arurella Clapp along with a host of nephews, nieces and many friends. Alice was preceded in death by her parents, Richard E and Edna Miller, son Brian, three brothers and two sisters.

Visitation will be held from 12-5 PM Sunday, December 2, 2018 at Stumpff-Barnsdall Funeral Home. Funeral services will be held at 1 PM Monday, December 3, 2018 at Barnsdall First Baptist Church with interment following at Ethel Reece Cemetery.

“ Aunt Alice has the best laugh. The best smile. She was the most loving caring woman. My earliest memory of her was of her fussing over me when I fell down the stairs in her house. Love her. Love you Uncle Bob. Praying for the family.
