“ She was my Friend ... my heart breaks for the family as she was their amazing matriarch. I am thankful for the mornings we shared coffee and conversation. She was both funny and ornery and made everyone smile while also giving of herself and time to anyone who needed help. I will always cherish those memories. I'm blessed to have known and loved her.

“ I am so sad to hear about Alice's passing. When she was the tag agent, I would go in just to visit with her. She was lots of fun to visit with, and we could talk forever. Jason and Butch, I'm so sorry about your mom. RIP dear friend.

“ She will be missed! She was one of my most favorite people ever. We were neighbors and she was my other mother growing up! Loved her and Ed so much. She made dresses for me and pierced my ears in the middle of our street the first time. Made special cakes for me, birthday, wedding, baby showers. She did it all and I loved her for it. She always loved me like her daughter.
