“ My main memories of Anna revolve around our trip to Europe in 2002. She and Henry and Patricia and then Tommy. Anna, Patricia and I in our "Bad girls of Paris" tee shirts. She had a quick wit and a great laugh and sure loved her sons. She was special. Carol Crist

“ To The Family of Anna Maria, my sincere condolences to you all. Although I never had the priviledge of meeting Anna my family was so very fortunate the day her son Tom met and married my daughter Susan in Lewiston, Utah. She raised a very fine hardworking family man with the most positive attitude and great sense of humor.
