“ I really LOVED Anna Mae! She, Brenta, and Opal were the very first ones to welcome me to church when I moved here in 2013. I will never forget her saying, “it’s so good to meet you, and I’m glad you are here. She and Pops would take me to Charlie’s Chicken most Sundays after Church. Sometimes we would eat there, but more often than not, we would take it home. Anna Mae also never missed acknowledging my birthday with a card. I will definitely miss her Debbie, Diane, Gina, Mel, and Pops, if you all need anything, I’m here. Love you all!
