

Anna Maxine Lockin

January 19, 1931 - January 20, 2025

It is with great sadness that the family of Anna Maxine “Mac” Lockin announce her passing on January 20, 2025 at the age of 94. Born on January 19, 1931 in Holden, Missouri, she will be greatly missed by her family and friends as she was a gift to all who knew her.

Maxine was raised in Clarinda, Iowa and from a young age, she exhibited remarkable intelligence, compassion, and wit - traits that would define her throughout her life. She attended Clarinda High School where she was a cheerleader and homecoming queen and excelled in academics, graduating at the top of her class.

In 1951, Maxine Dillon married Theodore “Ted” D. Lockin. She supported Ted throughout his Navy career, professional career at both Phillips 66 and the family-owned business “Premier Motors”, and civic duties as city councilman and Mayor. She was the proud and devoted mother of Steve, Doug, Ann and Linda, and immensely proud of the fact that all seven of her grandchildren achieved college degrees and several attaining post-graduate degrees. She always put her family needs above her own, and was there to support her kids through sports, school activities, and life endeavors. She taught her family the importance of kindness and helping others, the value of hard work and the power of faith. She created a home with unconditional love, and her unique and witty character will always be treasured.

Maxine was deeply involved in her community, dedicating 50 years and over 50,000 volunteer hours at Jane Phillips Hospital in Bartlesville where doctors, nurses and staff affectionately called her Mac. She touched the lives of many, even found time to volunteer at the Natural History Museum. When not volunteering or tending to her family, Maxine was a wiz at doing jigsaw puzzles, crossword puzzles and loved to read, travel and go on ocean cruises.

Maxine is survived by her son Doug and his wife Pat, daughter Ann and her husband Craig Hacker, daughter Linda and her husband Charles Ricks; her grandchildren Celeste Chumlea and her husband Grant, Julia Lockin and her husband Trevor, Chris Hacker, Darren Hacker and his wife Elise, Lisa and her husband Joe White, Angela and her husband Bryce Mayes, Laura and her husband Matt Fincher; Eleven great-grandchildren, extended family, and friends, all who will truly miss her. She was preceded in death by husband Ted Lockin and eldest son Steve Lockin.

The family wishes to extend their heartfelt gratitude to all who have offered their love and support during this difficult time including the staff of Saint Simeons and Angels Care Hospice. Your kindness and compassion have been a source of comfort and strength. A Celebration of Life service to honor and celebrate the life of Maxine Lockin will be held on March 1, 2025, 10:00am at Stumpff Funeral Home in Bartlesville.

As we bid farewell to our cherished Maxine, we take solace in the knowledge that she is now at peace, reunited with loved ones who have gone before her. Her love and light will continue to shine upon us, and she will be forever remembered and missed. Rest in peace Mac.

“ Maxine was such a sweet lady. I was blessed to know her back when we bowled at Phillips on the Female 66ers league on Wednesday afternoons. I wish I could've reconnected with her again, but so sad I didn't. The ladies I bowled with were wonderful. Until we meet again sweet lady, give Sandy Lefebvre and Zelma Widener and any others I may not be aware of that have passed on, a hug for me. We had such a fun time bowling together until I moved away in 91. For all these years, you are still considered my friend. God bless and your family is my prayers.

“ Maxine was such a sweet dear lady, and volunteer. We met when I began working in the ER. She kept me laughing. I taught her about the game "Marco Polo, and she said she was going to yell it out at a game that her and Ted went to just to see his reaction. We continued to keep in touch and I even received a Christmas card from her. I will never forget her. She will be deeply missed.

“ Maxine was always so sweet, funny and such a wonderful person. Her smile and kindness was so infectious and she was loved by so many, especially at the hospital where she volunteered for as long as I can remember. Sending lots of love to her family. May God be with you through this next journey without her here on earth.
