Anna Marie and I were neighbors when we were young, when I lived two doors down on Chickasaw. She was my best friend, and we played together almost every day. Her parents and maternal grandparents were all so nice, and I remember being jealous of the attention she received as an only child since I had 4 siblings. I know this is late, but I just discovered this info. My sympathies to her family. Martha Dellasega Gray, Seattle, Wa

“ Ann was a good friend, although we had lost track of each other through the years. She and some of her friends gave me a nice baby shower many years ago. My sympathy and prayers go to Terry and Stephen. Sincerely, Joyce Currell
