On December 23, 1935, Ann married James Herschel Mills in Amarillo, TX, they later divorced. Ann and Herschel had one daughter, Flora Ann, born on July 8, 1940. Ann also attended two years of business school, after which she worked as an accountant for both Brown and Root Co and Chemical Construction Co in Cactus, Texas. Here she met George Edwin Thompson, and they married on February 11, 1951. After a short time in Albuquerque, NM with Sandia Corporation, George and Ann moved to Bartlesville with Phillips Petroleum Company. In Bartlesville, Ann sang with the George and Ann joined First Presbyterian Church, where Ann volunteered to keep the financial records of the youth budget. In 1963, George and Ann were transferred to Madrid, Spain with Phillips Petroleum Co, and during this time they enjoyed traveling in Spain and Europe. They returned to Bartlesville in 1965, and Ann continued to enjoy her hobbies of gardening, cooking and reading. George retired from Phillips in 1980, and they continued to reside in Bartlesville. Serious health issues starting in 2007 caused Ann and George to move to Green Country Retirement Village, and later nursing homes. George preceded Ann in death on October 6, 2010.
