“ Glenda -- I am so very sorry to hear about your loss of your precious son. No mother should have to go through this kind of pain. Please know that my thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. I did not know your Tony but I do know his mother and she is a very precious soul. I am thankful that I had the opportunity to know you Glenda and my heart hurts for you during this difficult time.

“ I met Tony over 25 years ago was fortunate enough to have remained friends with him all these years. I can still say, he's one of the coolest people I have ever known. He had an easy charm and down-to-earth manner that drew people to him. Witty, but never mean, you could always count on him for a laugh, and if you ever needed anything, you wouldn't even have to ask. He'd be there. My last conversation with him a couple of months ago, He went on in great detail about what an amazing son he had, and how proud he was. It seems he touched many lives, and my heart goes out to all who loved him.

“ I am truly for your loss of Tony. It is tragic to lose a loved one the way we do and especially at such a young age. Something that personally helps me cope is Psalm 34:17-18 and Isaiah 25:8 Knowing God is near to those broken at heart is so beautiful and comforting. I pray you will reflect on these and they will bring you peace
My sincere sympathy
