“ Mr. Stacy was one of the kindest, most supportive teachers and administrators. He was always visited with me when at my grandparent's house. He was a sweet neighbor to them as well. Always looking for bargains and Coca-Cola items at garage sales and I always cut him a deal. His smile will be missed in this world.

“ Wendell was a great friend. I will always remember the summers we worked together at school and yes we did do some things that were a little on the sly side. When things would get stressful for him in his office he would make a visit to my office and we would just sit and talk. He will be greatly missed.

“ 😭 I'll never ever forget how he showed up to my garage sale and robbed me blind! We made fast friends. He kept telling me how he was so impressed because I was helping him load the truck by myself. He said I was a “strong girl”. He then showed up at my salon in Owasso 6+ months later wanting a haircut. I couldn't believe he remembered where I told him I worked. He said I was “unforgettable “ 😍 He was so sweet. We weren't friends for long but I'll never forget him. ❤️ Candace Oslin ~ Collinsville

“ Mr. Stacey was the best boss I ever had. Wonderful godly man. He always had a Bible on the corner of his desk. I remember him challenging a group of girls during pe class to a race and he won in suit and dress shoes!!

“ I am so sad to hear this. Mr. Stacy came to every garage sale I've had over the years except the last couple. We had the same conversation every time "Hi Mr. Stacy!" "How do I know you?" "I'm Pam Reese from Wann." "Oh Pam, I remember you!" And then we would talk about Scott and Arlin and all the rest of our families. He was a good, good man and will be dearly missed. Much love to the family.

Great man. only person that could drive bus #4 at Dewey High. it was a rough bunch. John Nadine, Lowe boys, Vermillion boys, Dean Boys, Little Mike Flanagan. He sure could swing a paddle. And negotiate with the best picker, collectors around. I sold him some things I later bought back at higher price.
