

Arthur Ray Boyle

December 16, 1941 - November 28, 2016

Boyle, Arthur Ray, 74, retired computer programmer and analyst, passed away at his Bartlesville home on Monday, November 28, 2016.

Arthur was born in Independence, Kansas on December 16, 1941 to parents Alvis and Marguerite (Stowe) Boyle. He attended schools there and was a stand-out football player. Arthur was a member of the 1960 Independence High graduating class. Immediately after graduation, Arthur joined the US Navy. He served his country as an aircraft mechanic on the USS Ranger. Following his discharge, Arthur worked full time while raising his two children and also attending college. He first attended Independence Community College, then went on to Pittsburg State University, where he received a Bachelor's of Science degree. On May 28, 1983 in Liberty, Kansas, Arthur married Glenda Lewman. Arthur enjoyed a wide variety of interests and hobbies, most of which were centered around his love of the outdoors. From fishing and hunting in his younger days, to flying planes, to racing his sailboat, the "Tina Ray" on Lake Oologah. Arthur also was an avid reader, reading about military history, Steven King novels and crime thrillers. An animal lover, he will be missed by his toy Yorkies, Cup and Saucer.

Arthur is survived by his wife Glenda of the home; children, Arthur Ray Boyle Jr of Springfield, Missouri and Tina Marie Purvis and husband Glenn of Bartlesville, Oklahoma; Grandchildren Heather Tisdale, Nicholas Purvis,

Jessica Daws, Jackson Boyle, Eric Boyle and Adam Boyle; Great grandchildren Savannah Purvis, Sadie Purvis and Ezra Juede; siblings Jack Boyle of Bartlesville, Oklahoma, Margaret Botts and husband Larry of Independence, Kansas and Mary Ann Lewman and husband Gene of Elk City, Kansas; and numerous nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his parents and one brother, J.D. Boyle.
