“ I didn't know Austin well, but have known his wife, Marie, since we were little kids going to church at the 1st Pentecostal Holiness Church on West Frank Phillips Blvd some 55+ years ago. I know that she has been a devoted wife and mother to Austin and her children. I understand what this loss can feel like. I trust that Marie and her family will put their trust in God and will find solace there. My sympathy goes to each and every one of you. --- Lynn Nodine

“ A good man, gone too soon. I'll always cherish his ability to make me laugh and the things I learned from him at work. He was a good friend and co-worker to me and I had much respect for him. I have missed his presence since he retired and there will never be another quite like him - ornery to the core but certainly a heart of gold. RIP buddy, the world is better because you were here. Sending love and prayers to Marie and the family ❤️

Marie, Kevin & Amy, may you all embrace the Peace that passes our understanding. My first memories of Austin came through his willingness to support our DHS Band program. He brings many nice memories for me. His smile warms my heart when I think of him. RIP Austin.

“ I enjoyed having a friend who was as big of a Disney enthusiast as myself. Austin loved dreaming of magical places and seeing life through a child's eyes while creating memories with family that will live on in each of you.
