

Babe Ruth Jones II

September 12, 1955 - December 12, 2020

In the quiet, early morning of December 12, 2020 Babe Ruth Jones Jr. was gently lifted by our Lord and Savior to his Heavenly home. He now walks in joy with Christ after battling a massive stroke.

Visitation will be held Wednesday, December 16, 2020, from 9 am-8 pm and wake from 6 pm - 8 pm at Stumpff Funeral Home. Funeral services will be held Thursday, December 17, at 11 am at Spirit Church in Bartlesville, OK.

Babe was born September 12, 1955, in Marshall, Texas, the son of Babe Ruth Jones Sr. and Johnnie Pearl (Cato) Jones.

He graduated from Marshall High School, Class of 1973. Following graduation, he moved to Jeffersonville, Indiana to attend The Bible Institute. He relocated to Bartlesville, OK to serve as the minister of music for Christ Gospel Church. He also worked at Southwestern Bell and later Phillips Petroleum. On June 15, 1975, he married Linda (Thompson) Jones. Over the years, he worked as the choir director for Greater First Baptist Church, Sitel, and was a musician for Christ Gospel Church in Tulsa.

Babe genuinely loved music. His love for music started at a young age. He began playing his family's piano at the age of four and by the age of fourteen he was leading the church choir. He has played and sang for many different groups over the years including, The Sounds of Joy, Foundation, Youth on the Move for Christ, and The TLB singers. He also wrote numerous Christian songs as well as writing his son's wedding song. Babe also enjoyed ministering to others, speaking Spanish when you least expected it, and he loved his family and friends.

He was preceded in death by his parents, his brother, Bernado Jones, and Elder L.C. Harris, Sr. and his wife, Fairy Bell Harris who always treated Babe as their own son.

Babe will be greatly missed by his son Shannon Jones (and wife Brooke) of Sherman, Texas, his grandchildren Keagan Jones of Tulsa, OK, Tyson Jones of Shawnee, OK, and Treyson Jones of Denton, TX, 2 bonus grandchildren Darian and Vincent Cherry of Tulsa, OK, his great grandchild Greyson Jones of Tulsa, OK, as well as many other family and friends.

The family of Babe Ruth Jones Jr. wishes to thank the doctors and nurses at Ascension Jane Phillips Medical Center, Medicalodge, and Comforting Hands Hospice. We would also like to thank the churches and prayer warriors that kept Babe and our family in prayer.

“ Bro Jones was a great friend of mine. We both attended Christ Gospel Church in Tulsa, Ok. He loved the Word of God and was an active Sunday School teacher for the Adult Class. He enjoyed playing the organ and singing during worship. He was often called upon during Christmas to assist with orchestrating the choir from an instrumental standpoint.

Bro Jones and I often rode to church together while I lived in Bartlesville. We would take turns driving to services during the week. At times on the way to church I might spot a deer or two and get real excited. I'd say, "Look there is a deer for which he would reply, "And...like saying no kidding". He never understood why I got so excited.

He studied the Word of God and understood the Hebrew language. He could break it down and share a portion of God's word so eloquently.

I will miss our talks. I know he is at the feet of Jesus absorbing everything the Lord is teaching him. I'm praying for this family that grant you his peace and comfort you during this time due to the loss of your loved one. Joe Evers Jr.

WH

Babe Ruth was a beautiful ,spirit that I will always remember. We attended Holy Spirit Catholic School in Marshall, Texas. Although a few years younger,we shared laughter of growing up in that "bubble". Peace and Love!

“ I will always remember the gift the Lord gave Bro. Jones, of many, of his insight and wisdom of the Word of God! In the times I would ride to church with him and Sis. Jones, I always enjoyed our conversations and his sharing of what the Lord had shared with him of His Word. I'm grateful for that.
