“ I will always miss my favorite teacher.I never thought it would be this soon.I need to make this to a memory of . I never wanted to lose her.She made that class room my second home. She always gave me hugs and I only saw her once after I left Ranch Heights but now she is in heaven and she is not hurting anymore. When I found out she died I cried and to this day I am still crying. Good Bye Mrs Brown Your little black rat {lexi}

“ There are not words to express my sorrow for losing Barbara. She fought so hard to beat this awful disease. As all know, she loved teaching and her family with a passion. I know these words don't mean much, but they will as you remember her. She was a wonderful example for all who knew her. My prayers are with you as they have been for these past few years. God protect and guard you through this time of sorrow.

“ Barbara was always so kind, ready with a smile to those she passed throughout the day. She loved her job, opened her heart to all children and fought bravely for so long. She devoted her fight to make sure that Derek, Brianna and Meredith were raised with love and all that she could give of herself. She made the most of everyday and should be an example to us all. I will miss her.

“ The world will not be the same without you teaching our children. You leave behind three legacies that will go out into the world spreading the light you gave them. May they all feel your continued love and guidance from above. There is no doubt you will be performing miracles in their lives for all eternity.

“ Our paths began crossing when we both went to Bartlesville Wesleyan College to become teachers. Many memories of lunches at the mexican restaurant as we talked about what kind of teachers we would be....to have then taught with her for 20 years was a privilege. Watching you all grow into wonderful young adults was a pleasure, as will be the years to come as I watch you continue to grow into the wonderful adults your mom always knew you would become. I love you all.

“ Mrs. Brown was a wonderful teacher and a soulful person in general. She was my first grade teacher the very first year she taught and was my daughters 3rd grade teacher this year. She has always been in my mind as a very encouraging lady, always putting family and students first. She will be greatly missed by all whose lives she has touched. Her passion for teaching and life has truly left a lasting impact on everyone who knew her. Now she has her true reward for all that she has done for others. Thoughts and prayers to her family!
