

Barbara Louise King

June 1, 1953 - December 3, 2022

Barbara Louise King passed away on December 3, 2022, at the age of 69. She was born on June 1, 1953, in Joplin, Missouri to Jack Leroy King and Dona Lee Schaefer.

After graduating from Sooner High School in 1971, Barbara attended Pittsburgh State University, she received two scholarships, the Robin Lovall memorial scholarship for her violin music and a performance scholarship from the University. She worked for many companies, including Reda Pump, Schlumberger, Memorex Telex, and Angel Shark Investigations. She did many different jobs working as a computer teacher, security guard, and private investigator. She loved camping and fishing, but what she loved most was spending time with her family.

She was preceded in death by her father, Jack King, and her mother, Dona King. She is survived by her daughter, Allison King; son in law, TJ Mink; and her grandsons, Matthew King and Camron King.

A celebration of life will be held at a later date.
