

Beatrice Marie Olson

July 19, 1942 - October 27, 2024

On this day we lay to rest (Miss B) Beatrice Marie Olson. Born July 19th, 1942, to Ida Wilson and James Wilson.

She was sick a lot as a little one and lived with her grandpa Sabe Polite till her teen years. Sabe was apart of GA. And was the only black member at United Township High School in East Moline, IL. Beatrice lost her left leg during her senior year but graduated. Afterwards she moved to Chicago with her Aunt Dorothy Burrell to become a beautician. In 1964, she met James J. Olson at a club where her Aunt Esther was singing. They met and married in San Francisco California after James completed Palmer College. Married 30 years she was determined and a great storyteller. She played softball and was part of a bowling team. She was a secretary for Phillips and retired. In her later years she ran Miss B's in Bartlesville, Ok and Curley's Tavern in East Moline, IL.

She has left behind her only child Staci E. Olson; one grandson Xavier James Olson-Towers; one brother James L. Wilson and his son; a host of nieces and nephews.

“ Beatrice was my mentor and friend, since the day we met in 1959. She could dance and sing with the best.

She always said God kept her on earth to pray for me and Frank Loll.

Time talking with her always left you smiling.

Grateful she was part of my life. Dave Ray
