“ I have so many wonderful Aunt Betty memories, mostly from all the Christmas and Easter holidays we spent together in St. Louis. I still can hear her exuberant laughter and decidedly non-Midwest twang, so exciting and exotic to this Wisconsin girl. Aunt Betty was the only person I ever heard call Mom "Shirley Ann," an affectionate pet name I suppose only an older sister could get away with! And I certainly knew Aunt Betty was an artist because Linda & I always received the most amazing handmade Christmas gifts; her presents even kept pace as we grew older. Darling children's felt purses and bedroom throw pillows became beautifully-crafted home accessories that I still cherish and enjoy today.

Ched, Khris and Gretchen: May you feel God's loving arms around you as you remember your Mom, celebrate her life and learn to live in a new way with her in your hearts.

*Love,
Cousin Sharon*
