Betty was a nurse for 50 plus years, and a homemaker all her life; but most importantly she was a "Woman of God and always kept her faith", in every circumstance. She was always volunteering to help people in need. She would take care of cancer patients, which included taking them to their chemo treatments, doctor appointments, and just being a good friend. Her favorite place to go was Branson. She always had family and friends tagging along, and you can always count on her being the driver, because she knew exactly where everything was. Her last trip to Branson was on March 20, 2019. If you didn't know Betty, she was a shopper. Her favorite places were Dillard's and Cato's, she always found a way to get a good deal. She loved to be with her family and friends. Dominoes and cards were her type of game, and she could always deal a good hand. Betty never met a stranger, and you can guarantee if you are out with her, she will walk into somebody she knew. She was very outgoing, and always dressed to the T. She will truly be missed , "Mom we love you , God size."

She is preceded in death by her parents, Herbert and Bertha Moses, two siblings in infancy, one sister, Violet Hunter, and her husband Idus McCabe Swearingin of fifty years.

“ If you knew Betty Lou then you'll know why I'm so blue, about her departure of course. She took a yellow rose from me from my fav bush in my front yard and planted in her back yard and darned if that thing didn't survive there were more to come even after and as far as I know their still growing right there. You will be missed Miss Betty I thank you for your wisdom you often shared with me wether I was there to mow the lawn or otherwise.
