She was born on June 13, 1928, in Coffeyville Kansas to Kibby and Jewel Loveless. Beverly spent much of her life in Coffeyville, where her warmth, generosity and unwavering faith left a lasting impact on everyone she met. At the time of her passing, she was living in Bartlesville, Oklahoma.

On November 9, 1982, she married Jim D. Fisher.

She was a devoted member of the Independence Church of God, Beverly found great joy in serving the Lord. Her deep spirituality and gentle spirit were evident in every aspect of her life. She was a loving mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, and great-great- grandmother who cared deeply for her family. Beverly especially cherished cooking for her loved ones- her meals were made with love and shared with joy.

She was preceded in death by her husband Jim; her parents; her daughter Linda Diann Benton; her brother, Melvin Loveless; and her great- grandson, Bryan Tickle.

Beverly leaves behind a legacy of love and kindness through her family, including daughters Judy Elliott and husband Charles of Bartlesville, Ok, and Tracey Lea Lockaby and husband Mark of Coffeyville, Ks; and son-in-law Rick Benton of Coffeyville, Ks.

She is also survived by her grandchildren:

Grandsons: Sean Eubanks and wife Andrea; Vince Elliott and wife Sabrina.

Granddaughters: Sara Anne Keeler, LaTisha Tickle and husband Elvin, Heather Steen, Haley Goodine, and Susan Mason and husband Alan.

Her cherished great grandchildren:

Great-grandsons: Patrick Montoya, Jordan Bowers, Matthew Goodine, William Elliott and wife Abigail, and Andrew Vela.

Great- granddaughters: MaKayla Goodine, Valarie Tickle, Emily Elliott, and Isabel Vela.

She was also blessed with one great- great- granddaughter, Peyton Montoya. Beverly is survived by one nephew, Phillip Loveless and wife Marsha; as well as nieces Kelli Brogdon, Charlene Walker, and Sheila Tice and husband Todd, along with many other nieces and nephews who loved her deeply.

Beverly's kindness, gentle spirit, and loving heart will be remembered by all whose lives she touched. Her legacy of love and faith will live through her family and all who knew her.

She will be interred at Robbins Cemetery in Coffeyville, Kansas at a later date.
