BILLIE CARLENE HAYNES

Billie Carlene Haynes was born at Wilson, Ok in May of 1938 to the late Claude and Lula Smith. She departed from this life on February 21, 2016. She was raised and attended school in Wilson, later marrying Roy in December of 1954. They soon moved to California and then to New Mexico having three children along the way. They came back home to Wilson in 1969 and she has lived there every since. Although her and Roy didn't remain married, they became friends again and would often have coffee together a few Sunday's a month along with his brother Dub.

She worked at several jobs but finally settled at the Daylight Donut Shop in Wilson and ended up buying it in May 1975. She owned it until she retired and sold it 32 years later in 2007 due to health reasons. She really enjoyed all of her 'regulars' that would come in daily for a cup of coffee, one of her 'fabulous' donuts, delicious hamburgers and maybe just a little gossip too. Billie, also known to many as the Donut Lady, got to watch a lot of the children around Wilson grow up and start bringing in children of their own for chocolate milk and bags of donut holes.

Other than when one of her many grandchildren or great grandchildren were born, one of her favorite and proudest moments was getting chosen to be the Grand Marshall in September 2005 for the Wilson Fall Festival Parade.

Billie loved to give out hugs and telling everyone to 'have a happy day'. She has been heard many times telling someone that tried to shake her hand 'We don't shake hands around here, we give hugs'. She never met a stranger and was loved by all that knew her.

Although, not able to get out much anymore due to health issues, Billie still loved to play bingo, play the slots and getting to visit with her family and many dear friends when they could drop by or talk on the phone. During nice weather she could be found on her back porch watching the rabbits, squirrels and humming birds.

Throughout the years, she helped dozens of people that were down on their luck, needed a place to stay or needed a little money for food, gas or help with a bill. She had a good heart and was very generous.

She liked to tell people that she was 'a tough ole bird' but in her heart she always knew that even the toughest ole birds must go Home to roost.

Billie was preceded in death by her parents Lula and Claude Smith, former husband and dear friend Roy, two sons Rick and David Haynes, two sisters, Peggy Powers and Rita Chapman and her youngest grandson Colt. She is survived by her daughter Linda, sister Anne Hagenbuch of Oregon, 6 grandchildren, Jamie, Jesse, Carrie and Siasoi, Monique and Danny, Casey, Dub and Erica and also 13 great grandchildren Jon, Alex, Xavier, Ethan, Hayden, Anjelle, Macey, Kylee, Jayke, Madden, Sio, Jagger, Kynslei, and numerous nieces, nephews, cousins and other family members.

The Haynes family would like to thank all of the wonderful nurses and nurse aides at Cross Timbers Hospice of Ardmore, Ideal Home Care of Healdton and St John Home Health in Tulsa. Thank you all so much for your kind, caring compassion and help during these last few years. Also, thanks to the other wonderful doctors and nurses that treated her and helped her during her many stays at the hospitals. We would also like to thank her dear neighbors and friends that helped her with her lawn and other things around the house that she could no longer do. They never hesitated to assist her with anything.

Per Billies request, a memorial service will not be held at this time. She wanted everyone to celebrate her life and remember her as she was when she could still dance a jig.

Memorial contributions may be made to Cross Timbers Hospice 207 C Street NW, Ardmore, OK 73401, Ideal Home Care 11049 Hwy 76, Healdton, OK 73438 or St. John Heart Failure Clinic 1919 S Wheeling Ave Suite 504, Tulsa, OK 74104 .

“ Dear Family and Friends,

I'm sorry for your loss. I just wanted to leave you with an encouraging scripture that has helped me deal with the loss of a loved one. It is found in the Bible Book of Palm 34:18 here God assures us that He is near to those broken at heart and crushed in spirit.
