“ Bob Hayes as I remember him was a close friend of mine even though we never met we did spend many long conversations on the phone going back at least six or maybe more years. We were half cousins 1 time removed. We just found out August 16th 2017 that we were connected by our DNA. We had discussed and re discussed how this could be sure and knew that connection was there but only proof thru names, dates, deeds and locations. We traced thru North Carolina, Tennessee, Missouri, Oregon, down to Arkansas, Texas and Oklahoma. My 5th great grand father James Glenn was also Bob's 4th great grand father. His ggg grandfather inherited some Glenn property through deed was my first inkling that we were related. He knew his this grandfather of his had been born in Orange County, North Carolina. (I;m still nearby) Bob left his phone number on his web site. On a Sunday afternoon those many years ago I called Bob and we stayed on the phone almost two hours and this friendship began.

When Bob was sick we continued our talks. The latter ones were mostly about his health and sickness. On our last call he said he was again able to get to the truck so I know he never quit fighting. I know Bob was a man of Faith and know that we will meet and all our genealogy questions will be revealed. I want also to thank Sandy who answered Bob's phone when he was unable to do so. I lost my husband years ago and I still miss him every day. God Bless You, Sandy and all your family and especially those grand children who he always talked about. If one can be had I'm sure he has a beautiful classical car if Heaven of his own choice. A little bit of blood relation is not as important as the friendship we made without never meeting. God Bless You, One and All.

When Sandy told me of Bob's passing, I privately shed a tear and knew that I had truly met a man who was a real friend of once in a lifetime,

“ I am saddened to learn of Bob's passing. I first became acquainted with Bob when I moved to Bartlesville in 1991. He was always very professional and easy to talk to and be around. He came to KC a couple of years ago for some work for P66 and we had struck up our friendship again even with the many passing years. I will be praying for the family. May God bless the family.

Sincerely,
Rusty Lee
