“ I remember many times shared with Kim--- when Brad wanting to tag along! What a great family the Clarks are--always welcoming to everyone and mentoring us kids as we grew along the way. May memories of the love and joy of family and friends help the family through this loss, and may each of us who have shared time with Brad & his family pass on the legacy of love they shared with us.

“ I was only 17 when I met Brad. I always felt he was looking out for me. Really he was looking out for us all. I still remember his laugh and how he would stop and cleverly explain something then laugh again. One morning after studying all night Brad shut his book and said if he didn't know it by now he would never know it and preceded to through the book in the fire in the fire place. Great person and he will be missed.

“ I sure will miss my Uncle Brad. This is a picture of him (back), a family friend, and my dad as little kids. I have great memories of being one of his "get away girls", his "platinum blonde" aka grey hair, his fabulous cooking, and his constant orneriness. He was stubborn and sometimes down right cantankerous, but anyone who knew him knows that really he was just a big sweet softy and would give you the world if he could. Rest well Uncle Brad, you are loved.

“ Brad, I remember childhood football games with the Clark and Light families. I remember your laughter, you wonderful kids--and reconnecting with Les several years ago reminds me of the wonderful job that Nan and you did raising your kids. You've been a friend to my dad when he has needed you most. Your parents, Merlin and JoAnn, made me breakfast when my dad and I were just visiting town. I have the fondest, warmest memories of your life. Lord Jesus, please bless the Clark family, guide them and bring them peace. Thank you for Brad's life!
