“ My most vivid and enduring memories of Uncle Bruce are as a Oklahoma State sports fan....and I mean almost every sport...and as a fan of American sports in general. He rooted for the Cowboys in everything, and there was not a topic in football, baseball or basketball that he couldn't hold a great conversation about. Uncle Bruce was also a guy who made you feel important because he always was engeged when he talked to you. He and my Aunt Ann always made me feel welcome when I visited as kid and later when I visited with my wife and children. I will miss Uncle Bruce, but I know that he is happy to be with my Aunt together again. Rest in Peace.

“ My first memory of Bruce was while I was in the 8th Grade band marching on the football field for a home game. Bruce was the Drum Major and did he ever put on a show. He was sensational. I did not know him at that time. In fact I only met him many years later after he married my sister, Ann. Since I was in the Seventh Army in Europe I was unable to attend the wedding. Bruce and Ann were a great couple. Since I was many times overseas or located on the east coast, I have not visited Bartlesville except very sparingly. I was always confident that my Mom and Dad were in good hands with Ann and Bruce. I always felt welcome when I could visit them. Bruce was a good citizen in many ways. Rest in Peace. Well Done.

“ So sorry to hear about Bruce, he was a dear friend since the early 60's. Also my insurance agent seems like forever. We worked together at Cherokee 66 back in 64. He was a good man and well liked. God bless him.
