“ I got to know Bryan a lot better when he and Teena became a couple, I know that he loved her with all his heart and they made a great couple. They loved hard, played hard and enjoyed each other's company more than anyone else's. When Teena and Bryan got Covid and he ended up in hospital so sick all Teena was worried about was him and all he was worried about was her. Their relationship was one for the history books. No one will miss you more than Teena will Bryan. RIP till we all meet again.
