“ My favorite memory of Brycen is of the Easter that Ron & Jayne lived in St Louis.

The "big kids" (myself, Brycen, Chris & Koby) were blindfolded and the "little kids" (Joey & Shelby) led the blind ones around the yard to find the Easter eggs. Brycen & I were about middle school age and we were led by little Miss Shelby who was VERY determined to get the most eggs (and a tad bit bossy). In the span of about 20 minutes, Shelby confidently led Brycen into a hole, over a down spout (which he kicked & caused water to come rushing out) and under a shrub (which he hit his head on).

Brycen was such a good sport about it and didn't once complain or get upset.

I love you & miss you Brycen!
