

Bud Smith

May 7, 1932 - January 14, 2016

Robert "Bud" Smith, 83, retired Senior Scientist Technician for Phillips Petroleum, passed away Thursday, January 14, 2016 in Bartlesville, Oklahoma.

Bud was born May 7, 1932 in Bartlesville to parents to Homer and Clara (Moore) Smith.

Bud proudly served his country by joining the U.S. Navy and was stationed in Siapan during the Korean Conflict.

Bud loved riding motorcycles, and he belonged to a Honda Goldwing group that rode all over the United States. Bud also enjoyed Square Dancing. He not only danced, he called dances in Bartlesville, Nowata and Independence, Kansas. When Bud was no longer able to ride motorcycles or go Square Dancing, he liked to go around the local nursing homes and sing and play his guitar; many of the tunes being songs he had written himself.

Bud is survived by a son Terry Smith of Santa Fe, New Mexico; a granddaughter Shay Smith of Arkansas City, Kansas; a sister, Eldora Barker of Bartlesville, Oklahoma and niece Mindy Barker and nephews Lee and Ray Hamilton and Shawn and Scott Barker.

Bud was preceded in death by his son, Timothy Smith and a sister, Doris Hamilton.
