

Buddy Henry Kutzschbach

February 23, 1925 - September 20, 2017

Buddy Henry Kutzschbach, longtime resident of Bartlesville, died on September 20, 2017, at Jane Phillips Medical Center. He was 92.

Buddy was born in Granger, Texas, on February 23, 1925, to Henry Edward and Katharine Schramm Kutzschbach. He was their only child.

During World War II, at age 18, Buddy interrupted his college studies to enlist in the United States Army Air Forces. He served as a radio operator in North Africa. After his honorable discharge, he returned to school and graduated from Texas Tech University with a degree in chemical engineering. He spent his entire career at Phillips Petroleum Company, first in Texas and then in Bartlesville.

Buddy married Elizabeth Ann Hannigan on February 1, 1948, in Fort Worth, Texas, and was a caring father to their four daughters. He was a talented handyman and woodworker, who could fix anything. Buddy enjoyed fishing, birdwatching, gardening, and spending time in the outdoors.

Buddy is survived by his wife, Elizabeth; his four daughters, Wynn Jackson (John Knopf), Linda Moore (Craig), Sharon Getz, Mary Perez (Ben), and eight grandchildren, David McClain, Samuel Moore, Elizabeth Brigham, Alice Getz, Eleanor Getz, Claire Getz, Aly Perez, and Isabel Perez.
