“ I will miss my friend Ms Carol. It didnt matter where Ben & I ran into her, she always had time to chat, and make me laugh. Heaven has indeed gained an angel, and I shall look forward to seeing her again in heaven. Our prayers are with the family.

“ I could always leave with a smile on my face whenever and where ever I saw Carol. It never mattered to her where we were at she ALWAYS had time to stop and visit. Never a time did she not mention one or more of her kids and how proud she was of them. She always made the woes if the world not so demanding after our visits. Her smile and laugh will be the things I will hold in my mind when I think of her. I know she meet up with Jeff after walking the streets if God with Her Master, and I can hear Jeff showing her around the neighborhood. Prayers for the family during this very difficult time. No reason to pray for Carol because she is better now than she ever was. Standing in the presence of God. Thank you all for sharing your sweet Mamma with thus community because she loved her community and the people In it as much as they loved her.
