“ I had the honor of working with Carol for the past eight years at First Baptist Church not only was she my Co-worker but she was also my friend. She had a love and knowledge for her job that was unbelievable but above that her love for her God and her family were greater.

“ Carol was a true loving and sincere friend. I will cherish our times together. I feel there will always be a hole in my heart till we meet again in heaven. She was an example of a faithful Mother, and Grandmother, with a sparkle in her eye when she related stories of each one of her children and grandchildren.
