

Carol J. Hitchcock

July 22, 1945 - January 16, 2017

Carol Jean Hitchcock, longtime Bartlesville resident died Monday January 16th 2017. CJ (known by most) was born July 22nd 1945 to Leo and Leona Schutt of Hominy, Oklahoma. She moved several times as a child and finished her high school education in Bristow Oklahoma in 1963. She moved to Bartlesville, Oklahoma and married Jerry Hains in 1965. Later in life she moved to Tulsa, Oklahoma and married Jim Hitchcock on July 2nd 1989. CJ was happiest when she was surrounded by her animals. It gave her great joy to nurse back to health those when most people would cringe. From co-habitation with rats, ferrets, dogs and cats, birds and squirrels, spiders, hamsters and even a hen. (Who CJ thought was a rooster). This was all joy to her. She could change a non animal person into a loving owner of a variety of furry critters. CJ is survived by her daughter, Tiffany Hains Smith of Tulsa Oklahoma, son Jason Hains De La Cruz and Spouse Jari of Henderson Nevada, son Jefferson Hitchcock of Los Angeles, California, daughter Lori Brown of Las Vegas Nevada, granddaughter Riley Hains De La Cruz of Henderson Nevada, neice Sydney Muir of Tulsa Oklahoma, and nephew Max Owen of Jenks Oklahoma. She was preceded in death by her parents Leo and Leona Schutt, sister Marlys Owen and husband Jim Hitchcock.
