Carol Hopkins, 72, of Dewey, Oklahoma, passed away on May 26, 2022, after a plentiful life. Carol was born on October 24, 1949, to Edward Ogans and Laureesa (Russel) Ogans in Bartlesville Oklahoma.

After graduating from Bartlesville high school in [high school graduation year], she landed her first job in the oil and gas industry working in applied automation for Phillips 66, from here she transitioned into the beauty and cosmetology industry as a licensed cosmetologist for JC Penny Salon for over fifteen years as well as Pretty and Pink Salon, and the BIOS corporation as a certified nurse aide.

Carol had many accomplishments, and major milestones in her life. In 1987, she became a licensed cosmetologist, this was one of her proudest moments, as she embarked on a new path doing hair for over 15 years. She was an employment specialist, and received an award for orientation and competency, certified medication administration, and an award for promotions and merit. She had many joys, but cooking was her favorite, she loved nature and feeding birds, traveling, old movie classics and a deep love of reading.

When Carol had her children, she decided to dedicate her life to being a fantastic and wonderful mother. Carol excelled at propping up all members of her family and supporting them through the many passions and difficulties of their lives. Carol made it her mission to improve the lives of others.

She was passionate when it came to her family, and when she wasn't filling her home with warmth and kindness, she could be found outside, enjoying her favorite piece of nature from her front yard. We will miss her greatly.
