“ Caroline was a dear friend of mine for over 30 yrs. I first met her when she came to work at the Peking restarurant where I had worked for many years Carloline had met her second husband John Sybil either at the restaurant or shortly before coming to work there. One day within a few weeks No more than a Month Caroline came to me and said that her and John was getting married. I thought she meant sometme in the future, No she meant that day. She and John wanted me to be one of the witnesses. We worked a split shift so during the split in the day I met her and John at the local Justice of the Peace and they were married. Caroline almost always had a smile on her face and never spoke badly of anyone. She loved her family and her friends. I feel blessed to have known her and her passing felt like loosing a sister. Fly High Caroline, I'm sure you will be one of the smiling faces that will greet me to the heavenly place where you have already arrive.
Your Friend Marie LaRue.

“ Carolyn was truly one of God's angels on Earth. As soon as I came to Muscatine she took me under her wing and became family. More times than I can count she was my biggest cheerleader. She was always believing I could do and be more than I gave myself credit for.

With her Caring Heart and her love for everyone around her no person who ever met her was ever the same again. Whenever she entered a room the light of Jesus always showed through.

I will never forget the day that she convinced me that I could take over the Bible study at the nursing home. She said now Dee you know Jesus can use you just let him do it. These people need Jesus and I will be right beside you as you walk this path.

What will I remember the most you might ask. Her Caring Heart and her sense of humor. She could make light of any situation and bring a smile to everyone who came into her path. I will remember the countless hours that we would sit together and talk about Jesus or listen to records or tapes. I will remember how much she loved her family and the many prayers that she always lifted up. She would always say Jesus hears every one that I pray and sees my tears. He even knows the ones that I can't speak.

While she may have earned her wings her memory and her Legacy will always live on in my heart and the Heart of others. I will strive everyday to be worthy of her belief in me purposely trying to follow the example that she set.

Fly high my dear friend. You will be missed more than you could ever know..

“ She was an amazing mother-in-law. We had so much fun together. I remember the time she wanted me to color her hair pink and paint her nails to match. Everyone that ever met her loved her. She was a light to everyone in both nursing homes in which she lived. I'm so glad I got to spend time with her. And I'm so glad she's with Jesus today.
