

Carolyn Claudette Vincent

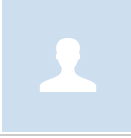

September 29, 1952 - September 9, 2021

Carolyn Vincent, 68, passed away suddenly on September 9, 2021, at 11:02 PM. She was born in Bartlesville, Oklahoma and was the daughter of Claude Vincent and Ethel Breese. She was employed at Jane Phillips Elementary School and worked as a kitchen specialist until she later retired. She enjoyed reading, walking down Bartlesville's pathfinder with her grandkids and camping with her family. She will be remembered for her goofy personality, her stubbornness but her strong independency, but most importantly her heart of gold that made her loved by so many. She is survived by her children Tonya Fowler and her husband Scotty Fowler of Bartlesville. Amy Glenn and husband Dekoven Glenn of Bartlesville. Her grandchildren Sydni Vincent and Miriah Ash of Claremore. Scotty Fowler Jr., Cheyanne Fowler, and Elizabeth Fowler of Bartlesville. She was preceded by siblings Bill Breese, Ann Vincent and Junior Vincent. Parents Claude Vincent and Ethel Breese. Cremation arrangements are under the direction of the Stumpff Funeral Home & Crematory

DB “ Carolyn lived with her older sister in Copan next door to me in 3-4 grade. Always a sweet girl. Quiet and shy! But a really good person sorry for your loss. She will be remembered by those who knew her.
