“ Cathy was my cousin and she was a very strong lady that stood strong in all her beliefs and challenges she met head on. She told me once when they made the handicapped restrooms they aren't big enough plus if a person is by themselves they need to make it easier to open the door to go into bathroom and I am going to try and get that done. When we were growing up every holiday our families would get together and homemade ice cream and chocolate cake. I would visit in Ochelata and Mary and I would sit in the front room when her date would come to pick her up to say something to make her blush usually it backfired on us. Rest in peace my sweet cousin in heaven and no more pain. Love Linda Lou
