

Cecil "CJ" Riley

October 21, 1937 - December 4, 2025

Cecil Riley, lovingly known as "CJ," passed away on December 4, 2025. He was born on October 21, 1937, in Durwood, Oklahoma, to James and Rosa Riley.

CJ graduated from Madill High School in 1955 and moved to Barnsdall, Oklahoma, the following year. In 1964, he began his long career at Bareco, where he worked faithfully until his retirement in 1996. After retiring, CJ devoted his time to ranching, and enjoyed traveling and collecting.

He is survived by his wife, Marjorie Riley; his daughter, Cecilia (John) Hibdon; his grandchildren, Aubrey (Shayne) Cramer and Adam (Brianna) Hibdon; and his great-grandchildren, Easton, Rylee, AnnaBella, Henry, Abigail, and Berkley.

CJ was preceded in death by his parents and his two brothers.

He will be deeply missed and forever remembered by all who loved him.

“ Cecil was a very good man and uncle. I learned a lot from him and Grandpa Riley about ranching and farming sold lots of vegetables in Barnsdall with Grandpa Riley.
Also, Grandma Riley was a great cook. It was a real treat to have lunch with them.
Our prayers and condolences are with the Hibdon family.
