“ My heart is breaking over the passing of Celia!! I first met Celia in Saudi Arabia. We hit it off from the beginning. Loved the days we spent sitting by the pool on the compound enjoying ice tea and laughing. My husband worked 7 days a week but Alton didn't. So Alton would take Celia and I out to eat then grocery shopping. Boy did we have a blast together!! Special friends they were indeed. Celia's smile was infectious!! Her giving to others was truly a gift. She and about 5 other ladies made life in the desert more bearable for me. Good times and wonderful memories of Celia will stay with me forever!!

Revel, being without your mom will hurt, but know she and your dad loved you so much and was very proud of you!! I will be praying for you and the rest of her family. Just think, she has already seen Alton and King and most importantly seen Jesus, what a beautiful thought!!
