“ In 1984 when we moved to Oklahoma, I made new friends who was running a fireworks stand across the street from our house that July, that was Charlie and Richard, they had a turtle named Blueberry they had turned loose and he came back to them while I was hanging out and they gave him to me. I have considered Charlie a humble and intelligent man. As we got older we use to race our cars when we would see each other, Oh he always had jokes too. Gone way to young, but I know this man's soul is dancing in heaven, I know for a fact he has gone to the light and he's got to experience and know more things about God than we will ever know until our time has come. Charlie will look after his loved ones from above, he won't have it any other way. Going to miss you man, I wish we could of hung out more growing up.

“ Charlie has been my son in law for 30 years , more like a son in so many ways. I loved his joking ways and how he could make people feel good. He never met a stranger. He suffered so much and for so long, and a lot of people didnt even realize how sick he was. He fought a long hard battle but just couldnt take anymore. His kids will miss him so much so if you see one of them give them a hug. Good bye for now Chuck until we meet again, thank you for all the memories and thank you for being a good husband and daddy. We love you and will miss you dearly.
