

Charles W. "Wayne" Holden

April 13, 1929 - January 14, 2019

Charles Wayne Holden went to heaven at the age of 89 on Monday morning, January 14, 2019, at the Veterans Hospital in Claremore, OK.

Wayne was born in Beggs, OK, to Marion "Jack" and Clara Holden on April 13, 1929. The Holdens moved to Dewey, OK, where Wayne graduated from High School in 1947.

Wayne joined the United States Army serving his country in Korea from 1950-1953. Following his military service, Wayne worked at Phillips Petroleum in Bartlesville for 34 years.

Wayne married Bonita Barger. In June 1957, they welcomed twin girls, Charlotte Anne and Charlene Sue.

Wayne married his second wife, Lila Meloy, in February 1983. She had 2 grown daughters, Jana and Joyce.

Nothing meant more to Wayne than his family. He loved his children, grandchildren, great grandchildren, and great-great grandchildren. Wayne was known for his work ethic, and his willingness to help wherever needed. Family time for everyone was enjoyed with Wayne on the boat on Grand Lake, and on the farm near Oglesby.

He was the President of the Oglesby Volunteer Fire department and served on the board for many years.

Wayne LOVED to fish and cook fish for others. He was known for his hospitality and his fish fries by scores of people in Washington County.

Wayne is survived by his wife Lila of Bartlesville, daughters Charlotte and husband Danny Montgomery of Oglesby, Charlene and husband Steve Bredel of Goltry, Jana Van Blaricom of Bartlesville, and Joyce and husband Gary Jenkins of Elmira, Oregon, 14 grandchildren, 19 great grandchildren, and 3 great-great grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his parents and his brother Kenneth.
