“ BD & Family you have our love and sincere condolences. We always remember Uncle Tom among our best memories for everything from repairing things at our house to taking care of our son Drew. Many memories around the Easter Flood 1979 in Jackson, Ms. Only good memories for Tom's kindness and his love for others and the Lord Jesus Christ our Savior. Love, Bill & Rita McMahan

“ Tom had to be the nicest, kindest neighbor there ever was!!! I lived down the street from him for almost 26 years. He watched my grand kids grow up..always came by to visit when they were in town. my little people thought the world of him! they are now 19 and 15. I loved this man for his kindness and love for Jesus Christ! He was truly upset when my Steve died...and he checked on me a lot..just to make sure i was ok. Heaven got a great servant...he was one of a kind! Fly High Tom....and tell my Steve hello! xoxo
