“ The memories our family made when together with your family will forever be special to me. Your strong friendship was always very important to my parents - and being able to share much of my growing up years with your kids was truly a good time. To each of you, Chris, Chuck and Debbie - my heart will always hold great fondness for each of you and for your father - a good man! Nothing can take the place of the REAL friendship we have shared, even when time and ill-health and lives moving forward have kept us apart. Our prayers are with you -
