“ Judy, Shawna & family,

We have always enjoyed visiting with Bill and Judy -sitting around the kitchen table or in the gazebo next to the garden where Bill spent so much time tending his vegetables. We talked of families and sometimes of what we'd seen on trips. He loved animals and always had several dogs, cats, and for a time pot bellied pigs, to keep us company.

He was also my father's good friend and the closest neighbor. Dad talked about Bill and Judy almost every time we called home, especially after my mother died. Bill and my Dad shared stories and coffee around that same kitchen table.

Bill was a good neighbor, a man you could trust, and one of the friendliest people we've ever known. We will miss him.
